Dear Parishioners,

I am grateful for your generosity over the past year. I am always humbled by your donations that continue to keep the parishes and school being able to provide the sacraments and an education that continues to be truly Catholic. My prayer for our parishes is that we be grateful for the gifts God has provided to us in his generosity and mercy, but also that we are good stewards of those gifts and continue to support the good of the parish in our community and to support those in need throughout our diocese and the world. Your donations through the parish and diocese are able to do that very thing. I am looking forward to my third year as your pastor in St. Thomas and in Sacred Heart.

It took me three years before I felt comfortable in my previous parish to be able to think of it as home. I am used to moving consistently ever since I left for college, as I haven’t spent more than 3 years in any place since I left home because I have been moving home during the summers while I was in school and seminary. I look forward to being your pastor for my full term, (6 years) or longer if God provides. Having a stable home is the way I was raised and what I am used to, I look forward to the stability this parish has provided and will continue to provide.

I am truly blessed to be the pastor of St. Thomas and Sacred Heart. I am grateful for everything you have provided to me so that I am able to be here. I hope to continue my personal formation and spirituality so that I can be the best pastor I can be for you to help lead you to heaven. May God bless you.

Father Brian Lager
