Listening Session

In the March 29 issue of the Register, the Salina Diocese and the Capuchin O.F.M.'s released their lists of clergy who have served within the Salina Diocese and have substantiated allegations of abuse of minors. Following the release of names, Bishop Jerry Vincke and Fr. Christopher Popravak, O.F.M. are hosting a Listening Session on April 2, 2019 at 7:00PM at St. Nicholas of Myra Parish in Hays, KS. All parishioners are invited to attend. Bishop Vincke and Fr. Popravak hope to answer any questions or concerns you might have. You can also submit questions online at pledgetoheal@salinadiocese.org. Additionally, the Listening Session will be recorded and posted to the Salina Diocese website at a later date.

Report Abuse –

Message from Bishop Vincke

The recent crisis within the Church has caused pain and heartache for all people. To anyone who has ever been a victim of abuse, I offer my deepest apologies. I pray that you and your family may experience healing and peace. If you, or someone you know, has ever been abused by a member of the clergy, please report the abuse. I strongly encourage you to reach out to law enforcement and the Diocese of Salina to report any incident of abuse.

Volunteers Needed!

We are looking for a few more individuals or couples to lead the Rosary before weekend Masses. If you would like to volunteer, please call the Parish Office to sign up. Thank you!

The readings today present two equally important aspects of reconciliation, which have profound implications for the battle between the Culture of Death and the Culture of Life.

The second reading says, "God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ," and then says, "We implore you on behalf of Christ: be reconciled to God." The preacher can raise the question for the congregation, "Who is doing the reconciling? If it is God who is doing it, then why are we implored to 'be reconciled'?"

The Israelites, as the first reading says, were freed from Egypt and given the Promised Land – yet they still had to fight for it once there, and they still had to struggle to observe the way of life of the covenant. The Prodigal Son, in today's Gospel passage, was greeted by a father who was already working reconciliation for him, eagerly anticipating his return. Yet he, too, had to work out his salvation. He had to struggle. He had to make a deliberate decision to renounce his way of life, get up, and make the journey back to the father.

Reconciliation is never achieved passively. And both in the case of the Israelites and the Prodigal Son, a key motive to doing what needed to be done on their part to be reconciled to God was that they had reached a dead end. Life in slavery was not appealing, and life for the son, far away from the father, had likewise lost its appeal. It is time for the nation to be reconciled with God. The hard work of reconciliation on our part includes the work of being reconciled with all our brothers and sisters. We cannot be reconciled to God unless we move toward our brothers and sisters to be reconciled with them – and this includes our unborn brothers and sisters. It includes everyone. Being reconciled with the unborn means recognizing them as persons like ourselves, speaking up for their rights, and working for their protection.
